

Partnership Announcement

We are proud to announce our partnership with Open Institute.

This partnership aims to provide free hands-on courses and innovative knowledge to civil society organizations, active citizens, policymakers, human rights defenders, and public officers - across East and West Africa showcasing real-world case studies on how to establish and sustain effective open data initiatives; build advocacy that drives transparency, innovation, and civic engagement; and strengthen their capacity to engage in the democratic process as changemakers.

GoVote is a platform that simplifies the electoral process and serves as an information point to all categories of voters. Since 2015, GoVote has directly mobilized and reached over 5 million Nigerians both offline & online to vote in elections.

Open Institute — an African non-profit organisation based in Kenya, working in various parts of Africa. We work in transparency, accountability, and citizen engagement to achieve two main things: active citizenship and responsive
